Dear Mr. Irvin:

Thank you for your kind letter of welcome to the state of Texas. I have had policies with Midwestern United Life Insurance Company since 1957. Mr. Dean E. Fitzwater of Dayton, Ohio, has been my agent through the years representing your company. Dean is a close personal friend and is a great insurance man. I know many of your agents and own stock in your company as well as in Midwestern Companies, Incorporated.

It is a pleasure to know of your interest and to have received your letter. I look forward to meeting you in the future.

Sincerely yours,

John Allen Chalk

Dear Mr. Chalk,

Hello, and welcome to TEXAS. We represent Midwestern United Life Insurance Company in the state of Texas. Since you have a policy with the company, we were notified of your change of address.

The premium payments on your present policy should continue to be mailed directly to Midwestern United Life. If, however, you wish to make any changes to your present policies (change of beneficiary, new method of payment, change in coverage, etc.) we will be glad to assist you. Our Agency will do everything possible to continue the same friendliness and concern for your personal insurance problems that led you to invest in a policy with Midwestern United Life.

Please consider us at your disposal if we can be of any assistance...and, again, welcome to TEXAS.

Very truly yours,

Eugene Irvin, Jr.
Assistant General Agent
